Editors' Notes

Effective July 1, 1998, the Kansas commission on governmental standards and conduct was redesignated as the governmental ethics commission. Rules and regulations of the Kansas commission on governmental standards and conduct were by law specifically retained in force and effect and became the rules and regulations of the governmental ethics commission until amended or revoked by the successor commission.

Effective July 1, 1991, the Kansas commission on governmental standards and conduct was created to replace the Kansas public disclosure commission. Rules and regulations of the Kansas public disclosure commission were by law specifically retained in force and effect and became the rules and regulations of the Kansas commission on governmental standards and conduct until amended or revoked by the successor commission.

K.A.R. 19-2-2

19-2-2. Advisory opinion.

- (a) Each advisory opinion request shall be submitted in writing and shall contain the full name, address, and telephone number of the applicant, a statement of how the applicant may be subject to relevant law, and a description of the opinion requested in sufficient detail to allow an opinion to be expressed on it.
- (b) Only those advisory opinion requests received in the commission's office 10 or more days before the commission's next regularly scheduled commission meeting shall be considered at that meeting, unless the commission finds that a longer or shorter period of time is necessary.
- (c) Advisory opinion requests may be amended or withdrawn by the applicant. If the commission finds that the commission lacks jurisdiction, the advisory opinion request shall be denied. If denied, a copy of the order denying issuance of an advisory opinion and stating the grounds for that denial shall be issued by the commission, and caused to be served upon the applicant.
